

Thank you for your interest and support of the Pike County Culinary Arts Program and our “New Generation Café.”

The Culinary Arts program is adjusting to several changes this school year. These changes are exciting, but also full of new challenges.

With the demands of the program requirements and additional transition challenges, we unfortunately cannot open the New Generation Café to the public this school year. We apologize for the void this creates for our regular diners.

Thanks again for your support of our program.